The METRO Parrot Head (further referred to as METRO) is an organization that participates and provides its members with opportunities to share in many different types of social activities and charitable experiences. For the benefit of all the members, guests and gracious charitable hosts we ask that members abide by the local, state and federal laws (including but not limited to) governing the misuse of personal privileges, property and controlled substances. The members of this organization shall be required to treat fellow members respectfully.

Members of METRO, by virtue of their membership agreement, agree to demonstrate personal responsibilities for their words, actions and deeds and not exhibit behaviors that are harmful to themselves or other club members, honored guests or hosts or their personal property. We hope to provide a positive, pleasant atmosphere in which we share our common love for the island life theme, Jimmy Buffett music and tales, and to further the charitable ideals we seek to uphold.

METRO does not condone nor tolerate behavior contrary to our objectives nor that which is harmful or injurious to others including its members. This includes inappropriate behavior at Charitable, Social or other events, or via any electronic media forums (i.e. Facebook, Twitter, Yahoo, etc.) where you are presenting yourself as a METRO member.

By virtue of your membership into METRO you have agreed to the philosophy of our national organization Parrot Heads in Paradise (PHIP) and agree to "Party with a Purpose" in a respectful, responsible manner. You agree to abide by PHIP and METRO BYLAWS, which are posted on their respective websites.

The Board of Directors (further referred to as BOD) reserves the right to uphold this said code of conduct for the betterment of METRO and ALL of its said members. The BOD reserves the right to revoke or withhold any membership not abiding by the club code of conduct or any of the BYLAWS.

The Board of Directors (further referred to as BOD) reserves the right to uphold this said code of conduct for the betterment of METRO and ALL of its said members.

The BOD reserves the right to revoke or withhold any membership or censure a membership for not abiding by the club code of conduct or any of the Bylaws. A censured member, A.K.A. a member "not in good standing" will not be allowed to hold, run for or vote for any position in the club as long as they are considered not in good standing.

Any violation of the Code of Conduct by a member, who is not in good standing, will result in the automatic revocation of membership.

A club member who is not in good standing may have a member in good standing petition the BOD to have this status lifted after a period of no less than six months. Once a petition is received, the BOD will consider the petition at its next regularly scheduled meeting. If the BOD finds good cause to lift the status, it can, by a majority vote, return the individual to a member in good standing.

If the BOD does not feel that taking this action is appropriate at that time, the member will remain not in good standing and can petition the BOD at a later date.

Removal from METRO is a grave situation and primarily occurs due to misconduct on the part of an individual exposing the club to liability, credibility, or reputation issues. Therefore, any membership revoked for reasons stated above, shall not be entitled to a refund of any portion of their dues nor shall they be eligible to receive concert tickets or any other privileges and/or benefits associated with a METRO membership.

METRO Parrot Head Club Facebook Page

The METRO PHC Facebook group was created as a social gathering place for members and friends of the METRO PHC. In addition to members of the METRO Parrot Head Club, all Parrot Heads are welcome to this page and to visit www.metrophc.net for everything METRO-related and especially to join and participate in the METRO PHC.

The administrators maintain this group to promote the METRO Parrot Head Club in general and the numerous Club sponsored social and community service events held throughout the year.

Like the METRO Parrot Head Club, the METRO PHC Facebook Group has a few common sense rules.

Posts need to be on-topic. They should be about or easily relatable to METRO PHC activities. Promoting METRO sponsored social or community service events is encouraged.

Posting photos taken at official METRO PHC activities is also encouraged. However, postings/pictures of other club or non-club events will be posted only at the discretion of the Administrators. Remember this group has over 300 members and all must be taken into consideration when posting pictures/posts of these kinds of events.

Photos taken at private gatherings, even if a number of Club members attend, will not be posted. The proper place for those photos are on an individual's own Facebook page.

Posts either about or easily relatable to Jimmy Buffett are always welcome. After all, he's the reason why we are here.

Posting information about Trop-Rock musicians who may be performing in the METRO Area is permitted if done infrequently (once per month).

METRO members who are also musicians/entertainers are allowed to the post notices of their performances.

Posts regarding events and activities that are sponsored by neighboring parrot head clubs will be permitted if done infrequently (once per month).

No marketing, fundraising, soliciting or advertising in the group is permitted, regardless of the cause, without permission of the METRO PHC Board.

The METRO PHC Group is not the proper forum to discuss general Club matters. Nor is it the place to settle disputes that members may have with the METRO PHC Board or other Club members. Members who may have questions about the METRO Parrot Head Club are encouraged to contact the METRO PHC Board directly.

At all times this group needs to maintain a welcoming environment, where everyone can be comfortable, and to promote inclusion for all. Negative comments about other Club members, Board members and the METRO PHC in general will not be posted.

Although we generally don't believe in censorship, members are not free to write whatever they want. Respectful communication is mandatory.

Repeated submissions of posts that might be considered disrespectful, profane, derogatory or cyber-bullying will be cause for removal for the group.

We're all here to have fun either by partying with a purpose or participating in community service events that help make our corner of the world a better place. The purpose of the METRO PHC Facebook Group is to help us all succeed with these efforts.
